Perfectly Figurish.

Perfectly Fleudish.

To be assaulted by the three imps, dyspepsia, constipation and liver complaint—a trio of satume birth—is perfectly fleudish. This often happens. The hateful three, however, soon whisk away to the nether inference when Hostotter's Stomach Bitters is employed by evict them. As a stomachic and alterative of disordered conditions of the bowels and fiver, it is speaking within bounds to say that there is not in existence a mediciness widely known as this, and few hideed which have received such pasitive and antierizative anaction from the three mainties of most common occur-rence, overly and does make it the most popular or family medicines. But, in ad-dition to that, it has achieved the foremost-regulation as a preventive of and remedy-for dulis and fever, rhoumatism, nervous and those trouble. Merit Wins.
